ALL hotels have this type of policy

Whether a debit or credit card, a certain amount of money is withdrawn from account for anticipated incidental charges. This can range from $50-$150 PER night. Therefore, if using a debit card, and example, staying three nights, a hotel could deduct $450.00 from a debit card account. Therefore, those funds will not be released for use until 5-7 days after checkout.

That is why we NEVER want someone to use a debit card.
